

Mallory Drover
215 Gardendale Dr.
Yellow Springs, Ohio 45387
(937)-926-1125
mdrover@antiochcollege.org

EDUCATION

High School Graduate, Homer High School, Homer, Alaska 2012
2 ½ Years of College, University of Alaska Anchorage, Anchorage, Alaska 2012 - 2014
Current Student, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio 2015 - Now

WORK EXPERIENCE

Assistant Curator (TFA Dept.), MFA Boston, Massachusetts 01/17 - Now

- Assists in design of new projects, assists in community outreach activities
- Participates in planning meetings
- Video & Photo Documentation
- Assists in designing materials and conducting research for certain exhibits
- Some administrative duties

Miller Fellow/ Dynamic Staff, YSCCC, Yellow Springs, Ohio 2016 - 2017

- Worked directly with children ages 1 ½ to 12 years as an assistant teacher and tutor to engage interest in learning
- Actively and regularly contribute to curriculum and planning
- Created and solely orchestrated a new fundraiser, which involved the greater Yellow Springs community through providing networking opportunities to local business

Direct Support/Service Provider, SPBHS, Homer, Alaska 2012 - 2015

- Provided direct intensive home and community based intervention for individuals with mental health and/or developmental disabilities
- Taught basic life skills to individuals
- Encouraged and/or coached individuals on their personal goals
- Provided respite care to some adults, youth, adolescents, and their families
- Advocated on behalf of individuals, and promoted self-advocacy
- Balanced documentation involved

Janitorial, The Bay Club, Homer, Alaska 2015

- Cleaning and deep-cleaning the gym after hours
- Laundry
- Organizing equipment
- Handling heavy chemicals safely

Artist/Clerk, Brown Bear Gallery, Homer, Alaska 2014 & 2015

- Operated gallery independently several days per week
- Managed Register
- Provided friendly customer service and hospitality to tourists
- Created artwork for sale
- Remained organized and reliable throughout seasonal employment

Individual Service Specialist, HOPE Community Resources, Anchorage, Alaska 2014 - 2015

- Provided direct support to individuals who experience developmental and physical disabilities
- Taught and provided all aspects of personal care
- Performed light housekeeping duties to ensure home is clean and safe
- Transported clients to and from personal appointments and community events
- Administered medications as needed
- Completed accurate notes and records of supports provided

Artist/Clerk, Ptarmagin Arts Co-op Gallery, Homer, Alaska 2013 - 2015

- Created art for sale and display
- Managed gallery independently 1-2 days per month
- Attended monthly co-op meetings when possible

Student Association President, Kachemak Bay Campus, University of Alaska Anchorage, Anchorage, Alaska 2013 - 2014

- Generally manage the Student Association through the Executive Board
- Developed goals and objectives, and facilitated their implementation and evaluation
- Appointed non-elected committee chairpersons upon approval of the Executive Board
- Chaired Executive Board meetings
- Called special meetings
- Represented the Student Association to the Coalition for Student Leaders and other groups
- Supported the Legislative Committee
- Reported the actions of the Student Association and the Executive Board to the Kenai Peninsula College Council and the Kachemak Bay Campus Advisory Board
- Assumed the Service Chair's responsibilities in his/her absence

SKILLS

- CPR Certification
- AED Certification
- First Aide and Personal Care Certification
- Typing: 80 words/minute
- Basic American Sign Language
- Skilled in Written and Interpersonal Communication

- Microsoft Word and Google Drive: Proficient
- Mild Experience with Excel

VOLUNTEER/COMMUNITY WORK

- Visiting the S.P. Hospital's Long Term Care Ward, Homer, Alaska 2015
- Brought my young boston terrier (Juno) to visit long-term care residents once a week for a summer
- EMT-1 Certification and Volunteering, Homer Volunteer Fire Department, Homer, Alaska 2012 & 2013
- Completed EMT-1 certification
  - Volunteered on ambulance for two summers
- Anchor Point Soup Kitchen/Food Pantry, Anchor Point, Alaska 2012
- Volunteered weekly to organize food pantry and cook/serve free soup
- Peer Mentoring, Homer High School, Homer, Alaska 2011 - 2012
- H1N1 Vaccinations, Talkeenta, Alaska 2010
- Volunteered as an assistant for the free distribution of H1N1 vaccinations
- Traveling Village Vet Clinic, Talkeetna, Alaska 2009
- Volunteered as an assistant for a traveling veterinarian clinic, which provides free spaying, neutering, and check ups for pets in remote villages.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Horace Mann Fellowship: Full Four Year Half Tuition Scholarship, Current
Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio
- Antioch Opportunity Scholarship: a merit-based award that covers half of the cost of tuition for admitted first generation college students at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio Current
- National Honor Society, Homer High School, Homer, Alaska 2012
- Lifelong Learner Award, for the Celebration of Lifelong Learning, by the Friends of the Homer Public Library, Homer, Alaska 2012
- Beluga Tail/Tale Fiction Writing Scholarship, $3000, from the Scholarships of the Tin Roof Fund at the Homer Foundation, won by submitting three samples of original writing, Homer, Alaska 2012

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am a hard worker. I have a positive attitude, and an abundance of patience. I take responsibility and reliability seriously, am well organized, am a problem solver, and enjoy making accomplishments and facilitating goals whenever possible. I enjoy jobs incorporated with management and/or leadership aspects, but also take orders with respect and efficiency. I thrive in an environment in which I'm being depended upon.